

These worksheets for Class 4 Maths, CBSE / NCERT / SCERT will improve your subject concept and improve your grades.

Multiplication

Arvind and Anand wanted to make a cupboard and went shopping for the materials.

They bought 12 square feet of plywood, each square feet costing Rs 65. They bought 4 boxes of nails for Rs 18 per box, each box containing 50 nails. They bought 6 glue tubes, each glue tube was costing Rs 75. They also bought 2 handles, one handle was priced at Rs 45 and another one for Rs 95.

1. How much did they spend on the plywood? _____
2. How much did they spend for the nails? _____
3. How much did they spend for the handles? _____
4. How much did they spend for the glue tubes? _____
5. How much did they spend in all? _____
6. Did they spend more on nails or glue tubes? _____
7. If they had to buy 4 handles of both type how much will it cost them? _____
8. A pack of glue tube containing 6 glue tubes were priced at Rs 300. Will it be cheaper to buy this pack or six individual glue tubes? What will be the price difference? _____
9. For another project they bought 19 boxes of nails and 12 glue tubes. How much would it cost them? _____

