

Countability

(countable & uncountable noun)

Used with Countable Nouns Only a doctor, a pen, a meal, a class, a college many many cups, many books, many libraries, many flights few few questions, few tables, few apples, few holidays, few countries a few a few questions, a few problems, a few issues, a few issues Used with Uncountable Nouns Only much much money, much time, much food, much water, much energy little little trouble, little equipment, little meat, little patience a little bit of a little bit of confidence, a little bit of sleep, a little bit of snow:

Used with Countable & Uncountable Nouns

the	countable	the lions, the colleges, the teachers, the boats, the apples
	uncountable	the cake, the luggage, the knowledge
some	countable	some chairs, some shops, some grapes, some towns, some doctors
	uncountable	some time, some news, some bread, some sugar, some mail
any	countable	any spoons, any shoes, any rooms, any chefs, any beliefs
	uncountable	any advice, any soap, any vehicle, any silver
no	countable	no books, no cookies, no drivers, no rings, no oens
	uncountable	no hazzles, trouble, no grass, no scene, no money, no furniture
a lot of	countable	a lot of birds, a lot of notes, a lot of people, a lot of adults
	uncountable	a lot of assistance, a lot of exaggrivation, a lot of fun
lots of	countable	lots of laptops, lots of cars, lots of parties, lots of schools
	uncountable	lots of ice cream, lots of ice cake, lots of energy, lots of laughter
enough	countable	enough spoons, enough potatoes, enough hotels
	uncountable	enough guts, enough brains, enough noodles, enough time
plenty of	countable	plenty of cars, plenty of movies, plenty of pianos
	uncountable	plenty of water, plenty of salt, plenty of cheese, plenty of time